SEVERE COLD WEATHER

DRIVING PEOPLE SOUTH.

LARGER NUMBER OF ARRIVALS

WEDNESDAY THAN ANY PREVIOUS DAY THIS SEASON.

Wednesday was the banner day for arrivals from the north, up to the present time this season.

The largest number coming by any one train being on No. 29, the Miami express, which is due here at 1:45 p. m. Seventy-three passengers alighted from this train alone while the other four south-bound trains each contributed a goodly number to swell the crowd now coming to this popular resort.

Many of those coming in say they were driven south by the long continued cold weather prevailing north, together with the discomforts arising from the unusually heavy snows so general this winter.

CIVIC DEPARTMENT TO GIVE

BENEFIT FOR CITY ISLAND

The Civic Department of the City of Daytona will give a benefit for the City Island on Tuesday, at the club house. No report was had from City Island since the time of the last meeting of the committee.
